

Birth Stories

Ehlonna's first home birth, 2020

Our baby BOY is here!!!! Born on Wednesday, January 6th at 7:48am. I had him at home just as we had planned and we are both doing great. Baby Grady is so perfect and we are over the moon for this baby boy. [Our older boy] can't stop giving him hugs and kisses, mamas heart is so full!!! 9lbs, 20.5 inches long.

Have to give thanks to my amazing husband for all of his support during the almost 4 hours of my pushing phase, I've never felt more loved and empowered! Also want to shout out Trillium Midwifery-Alison and Heather, my midwives for making this pregnancy, labor and delivery a comfortable, enjoyable experience. I looked forward to my appointments with them, they are so knowledgeable and truly like family. Home birth is everything and more!!!! Blessed in so many ways!

PS. We didn't find out what we were having and I was convinced that little Grady was a girl for my entire pregnancy 🙄🙄 #boymom (3 for 3)

- Ehlonna